

CRAIG WELLS, RPH

Charles Craig Wells, RPh grew up in Thomasville, Alabama and graduated from Thomasville Academy in 1978. He attended college and pharmacy school at Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama.

Craig remained in Birmingham after graduating from pharmacy school and worked at Brookwood Medical Center. He also worked for Express Pharmacy, a large mail-order pharmacy in Birmingham, which he was a shift supervisor. He also had the privilege to be the project leader for one of the first robotic projects in the country for filling prescriptions while at Express Pharmacy.

Craig moved back to his hometown in 1991 where he worked for local independent pharmacy that had been there since he was a kid. He ended up purchasing this same drug store in 1995. During this time, he became a Certified Diabetes Educator (CDE) and enjoyed teaching patients how to better manage their diabetes. This is also the time he learned about the compounding pharmacy industry. He also purchased and ran a restaurant in Thomasville in 2001.

Craig moved to Fairhope, Alabama in 2008. He has worked for various Chain Pharmacies in the area and has worked at two compounding pharmacies. He has been working as the pharmacist-in-charge at Compound Pharmaceutical Technologies since 2016.

Craig married Donna in 1997 and help raise her daughter and son. Their daughter, Alanna, lives in Los Angeles, California and son Charlie serves in the Air Force. Both are married to wonderful spouses. Craig is expecting his first grandchild from Charlie and his wife very soon. Craig is an active member of 3 Circle Church in Fairhope.

While living in Thomasville, Craig thoroughly enjoyed the outdoors and hunting. In Fairhope, he enjoys kayaking. Craig really enjoys helping people reach better health. It has always been that way and remains so today. That aspect has never diminished but has only amplified over the last several years.
